OPPOSITION TO DRAFTING MEN UNDER TWENTY MAY CAUSE SERIOUS DELAY IN PASSAGE OF DRAFT BILL

Washington, Aug. 21.—Unwillingness of some members of congress to draft men under 20, threatened today to block temporarily the army program of getting eighty divisions of American troops in France by next June.

This is the program Chief of Staff March has declared will beat Germany during 1919. The man-power bill, as it will be reported today by the military committee carries an amendment placing boys of 18 and 19 in special classes to be called after all older men in class one are summoned. The amendment threatens to impede the army program in two ways. First to delay its passage through the house and senate and in all probability force prolonged conferences between the two houses.

Second to force General Crowder to do over again much of the work already completed in preparation for the new draft.

As a result President Wilson, if necessary will appeal personally to congress to strike out the objectionable provision. Unless the man-power measure is enacted within the next month the war department will be forced to curtail troop shipments to France or take the chance of an industrial upheaval by invading deferred classes, according to Secretary Baker. General March and Provost Marshal General Crowder.

Opponents of the amendment today, however, still held out the hope that it can be defeated on the floor. Every committeeman who voted against the measure reserved the right to fight it. They will point out that the country already has the promise of Secretary of War Baker that boys of 18 will be the last called and that the calling of these men cannot be deferred in any event later than next June.

General Crowder's statement that such a plan would force amendment of regulations and reprinting of questionnaires resulting in long delays and confusion will also be used to battle the amendment.

HEAVY FIRING OFF ATLANTIC COAST IS REPORTED TODAY

MORE FEMALE ENEMIES

Cincinnati, Aug. 22.—Tabulation of returns from the registration of German female enemy aliens in the Southern Ohio judicial district disclosed that 2,478 German women above the age of 14 years were registered. This is 50 more than the number of male alien enemies registered last February.

Cincinnati had the largest registration in the district with 1,261. Dayton followed with 326 and Columbus with 289. Other cities registered down to one at Urbana and one at Wellston.

DEADLOCK CONTINUES.

London, Aug. 21.—The deadlock in the conductors strike continued today. A few women conductors on the tubetrains also have quit working, but not enough to seriously interfere with traffic. Between 17,000 and 18,000 conductorettes are now idle.

McADOO GOES TO NEW YORK.

Washington, August 21.—Secretary McAdoo has gone to New York to confer with officials of the Federal Reserve Bank of that city.

The treasury officials declined to make public the matter to be discussed.

called into the fight, if it becomes necessary.

Another amendment opposed by Baker which will likely go into the bill provides for the drafting of the so-called marriage slackers. Baker has asked that this be left to regulations, because they are not so rigid as written statutes.

The Thomas work or fight amendment is almost sure to be left out of the bill when it goes to the house.

Although the man-power bill will be reported today, Chairman Dent of the military committee does not expect to call it up until Thursday. He believes it will go through in one day.

FOCH FORCES HINDENBURG TO SACRIFICE MEN

By J. W. T. Mason, United Press War Expert.

New York, Aug. 21.—Marshal Foch's steady encroachment upon the hill barriers protecting Von Hindenburg's southern Picardy front, has not reached the point where the allies are able to observe practically all the German movements far back of the line toward Noyon, the German concentration point marked for capture.

This important advantage has been secured by the seizure of the Lassigny plateau, and the virtual occupation of the town itself. The difficulty of fully observing the activity of the Germans north of the Lassigny region has hampered Marshal Foch's disposition of his own troops now that all secrecy of concentrations before Noyon has been removed. Von Hindenburg must conduct his defense of their area with new difficulties.

A further call upon the German reserves to protect the Noyon line will be necessary, if Von Hindenburg resolves upon the doubtful course of trying to postpone his inevitable retreat a little longer. Marshal Foch is now in a position to hammer away at the approaches to Noyon from three directions—west, southwest and southeast. Von Hindenburg can find men to hold these gateways only by further depleting reserves.

The triple advance toward Noyon is not only a tactical move in the development of Marshal Foch's local offensive. It's strategic purpose is to compel Von Hindenburg to use up as many of his troops as possible in first line fighting over the widest possible front. In this manner Von Hindenburg's plans are seriously disarranged, for he cannot count on maintaining behind the lines a stabilized reserve force. Territorial gains is not Marshal Foch's sole objective at present. Even more important than the immediate recovery of French terrain is the confusion and uncertainty which surrounds Von Hindenburg's greatest problem—the building up of a new reserve army to oppose the eventual offensive of Americans.

ONE OF THE "WILFUL TWELVE" IN THE LEAD

Lincoln, Nebraska, August 21.—Incomplete returns from yesterday's state-wide primary today showed that Senator George W. Norris, one of the "wilful twelve" leading for the Republican nomination for senator.

S. R. McKelvie, apparently has been named Republican candidate for governor.

CZAR FERDINAND SERIOUSLY ILL

Madrid, August 21.—The newspaper Liberal declared it hears from authoritative sources that Czar Ferdinand of Bulgaria is at Frankfurt, desperately ill and believed to be dying. His family is said to be with him. The newspaper expresses the opinion that the death of the Czar would create disturbances in Sofia that would end in the declaration of a republic in Bulgaria within a few days.

WORKERS IN OIL FIELDS DECLARE LIVES ARE UNSAFE

Washington, Aug. 21.—Skilled American and British workmen in Mexican oil fields are threatening to leave, alleging their lives are unsafe, representatives here of private oil interests declared today.

State department officials had heard nothing of such a step recently, although for many months skilled workers have been dissatisfied with their protection.

Exodus of these men would hold up to the oil supply to the navies of England and the United States and would be a serious blow to war plans.

Bandits have recently robbed and murdered workers in the Tampico district, and a number of payroll robberies have occurred, oil men here say. Foreigners are not permitted to carry arms for self defense.

GERMANS GIVE GROUND READILY BEFORE ALLIES

BY LOWELL MELLETT,

United Press Staff Correspondent.

With the British Armies in France, August 20.—(Night)—Whether it is because the men's fighting spirits are gone, or because the higher command is deliberately following a program involving retirement whenever they are rushed, the British are finding that on various parts of their line the Germans give way with an unexpected easiness.

All withdrawals so far have been explained by the Germans as a desire to shorten their line, inasmuch as this has been the actual effect. In some instances, though it has left the Germans in less satisfactory positions than those abandoned, an interesting feature in the advance today in the Merville region where the German officers seem imbued with the idea of getting their forces safely out of the path of the British, is that these Boches are part of the army of General von Bernardi, who as a writer, was a proponent of the idea that the only way to fight is to advance.

SPAIN SENDS NOTE OF WARNING TO HUNS

Madrid, August 21.—The ministry of the interior issued a statement to the newspapers today, announcing that Spain had sent a note to Germany, declaring if there are any further sinkings of Spanish vessels, Spain will temporarily replace them from German tonnage interned in Spanish harbors.

That such a note had been sent was reported several days ago, but the Spanish authorities denied it.

PRISON LABOR MAY BE CALLED TO AID WAR WORK

Washington, Aug. 21.—Prison labor may be called to aid the war. The war labor policies board favors this radical action and has a resolution recommending congressional consideration. No private contract system would be permitted.

OHIO BAKERS MEET

Marion, Aug. 21.—Group Six of the Ohio Bakers Association held its annual meeting here today.

WILLIS IS AFTER MORROW'S GOAT

Columbus, Ohio, August 21.—Exercising his prerogative as party leader, Frank B. Willis, nominee for governor, has decreed the retirement from the chairmanship of the Republican State Central Committee of D. Q. Morrow, of Highland, who was elected two years ago as a compromise between William L. Parmenter, of Lima, and Peter W. Durr, of Cincinnati. The fight then was staged as between the wet and dry factions of the party, Parmenter being the dry selection and favored by the Willis following.

The Willis candidate this year is Newton W. Fairbanks, of Springfield, veteran member of the committee from the Seventh Congressional District, a relative of the late Vice President C. W. Fairbanks, and an associate of Harry M. Daugherty, in factional Republican politics.

WORLD'S FAMOUS TENOR TAKES BRIDE

New York, August 21.—Enrico Caruso, world's famous tenor today was a bridegroom, his bride was Miss Dorothy Park Benjamin, 25. She is a daughter of Park Benjamin, a Wall street lawyer. Caruso made the news of the marriage probably through his secretary, but kept to the seclusion of his apartment with his bride, declining to see newspaper men. He declared he was too excited to trust his scant English to interviewers.

STREET CAR FARE IN COLUMBUS RAISED

Columbus, O., Aug. 21.—Putting its fares issue up to the United States court, Columbus Railway, Power and Light Company today announced forfeiture of its franchise and started to charge five cent fares with one cent for transfers. The rate has been eight tickets for a quarter and no charge for transfers.

Many passengers refused to pay the increase and were allowed to ride free after offering to purchase tickets at the franchise rate. City Attorney Scarlett has advised against payment and will ask the United States court if it will "entertain jurisdiction" of the case.

The rail-light company filed suit in United States courts to enjoin the city from compelling it to live up to its franchise, alleging latter is confiscatory in character. The franchise does not expire until January 1926.

PROGRESS MADE AGAINST ENEMY ON WIDE FRONT

London, Aug. 21.—The British in their new attack between Arras and Albert, are reported to have progressed three miles in the center, reaching Achiet-le-Grand (three miles northwest of Bapaume.)

At other points in the line Byng's men have gone ahead two miles.

With the British Armies in France, Aug. 21.—General Byng's army struck the Germans on a ten mile front between Arras and at Albert, during a heavy fog this morning.

The attack began shortly before five o'clock and by nine o'clock the British had captured Noyenneville, Courcelles, Luoquy, Ablainzeville, Achiet-Le-Petit and Beaucourt-sur-Ancre.

London, Aug. 21.—The British attacked on a wide front north of the Ancre this morning, Field Marshal Haig reported today. Satisfactory progress is being made.

The attack was made at 4:45 this morning and this morning on widely separated sectors of the Flanders front.

"We attacked at 4:45 this morning on a wide front north of the Ancre," the statement said.

"Satisfactory progress was made."

Paris, Aug. 21.—(12:20 p. m.)—The French continued to progress on the whole front between the Oise and the Aisne last night capturing Carlepont and Cuts, the war office announced today. The Germans have failed to counter-attack on this front.

French troops also advanced west of Lassigny in sharp fighting.

Between the Oise and the Aisne there was no change in the situation last night, the enemy failing to react, the communique said.

"The French continued to progress on the whole front, and captured Carlepont and Cuts.

Paris, August 21.—10:00 A. M.—General Mangin is continuing his advance between the Oise and the Aisne and has made additional important gains at these points. Several more villages have been occupied.

He is gradually extending his fighting front eastward until now it reaches from the Oise almost to Soissons over an irregular line nearly 25 miles long.

The Germans are rushing up reinforcements in motor trucks and are concentrating their resistance in Carlepont and Ourscamp forests (bordering the east bank of the Oise from Bailly northward to Sempiigny).

The French, however, are making good progress just east of these wooded areas, Nampiel, where the most furious fighting is going on.

Mangin is now in possession of a score of villages and many scores of strong points. He is holding the entire Carlepont-Cuts road. (Cuts is four and one-half miles southeast of Noyon), the Bois-de-Lamontagne, Hills 130 and 141, Belle-Fontaine and Caisnes. He is also said to have taken Hill 156 and reached the table land north of Vassens, occupying Vauzeis (two miles and a half northwest of Soissons). Epagny (six miles northwest of Soissons) Valprez farm and all lines southward to Pommieres (two miles west of Soissons).

The number of prisoners which was reported more than 2,000 yesterday, is steadily increasing.

ANNUAL PICNIC IS ENJOYABLE EVENT

Although the attendance was small, in comparison with other years, the annual picnic of the First United Presbyterian congregation, which was held at Kilcare park, Tuesday, was greatly enjoyed. The picnicers went to the park about 10 o'clock and had dinner there, returning home in the afternoon. There was no program of amusements, and everybody enjoyed himself in his own way.

CASH and CARRY GROCERY

THE MODERN WAY OF BUYING YOUR TABLE SUPPLIES.

How can your sell standard, high-grade groceries at these prices? This is a question asked of us every day by our satisfied customers. The answer is very simple—

FIRST—We sell for cash only, this eliminates the expense of a bookkeeper and we do not have to add a little extra on each article to cover the accounts that are termed—slow pay, and some that are never paid.

SECOND—We have no high priced delivery outfit to keep up, which if you will stop to figure, you will find to be very expensive.

THIRD—We are located just a few steps outside the high rent district, another saving which we are passing along to our customers. Small profits and a quick turnover of our stock readily explains why our business is growing larger each month.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF GREENE COUNTY WOMEN THURSDAY

Thursday afternoon, August 22, at 2 o'clock, in the auditorium of the McKimley building, on West Market street, there will be an important meeting of the women of Greene county in the interest of war work. Every woman is urged to come and bring her troubles in food conservation with her, that her problems may be solved if possible by our experts, who will be there for that purpose.

We would be glad to have as many samples of cake and bread as possible, so bring a small piece of your home-made bread or cake or corn bread, that you are not satisfied with, and you may learn how to make it better.

Miss Ruth Kyle will explain the canning of fruits and vegetables and Mrs. T. C. Wolford will answer questions about the use of flour and sugar substitutes.

Miss Margaret Webster and Miss Rose Engelman will give their "Four Minute" speeches, which were awarded first place in the Freshman and Sophomore classes, respectively, in their contest several months ago.

Miss Anza Johnson will boost for the Student Nurse Drive now on in this county, explaining the conditions of the registration and the necessity of the work. She will also tell about the classes in home nursing already organized in the county.

There will be other important announcements and every woman is invited. Let there be a full representation of all township chairman of all Departments of the Council of National Defense.

MRS. GEO. H. GEYER,
County Chairman.

The Right Word.

"She's very high and mighty. I don't like her attitude." "You mean attitude?" "Attitude fits this case," interposed a third member of the party.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

GETS PROMOTION

Virgil Gale Morgan, recently of Columbia City, Indiana, but formerly of this city, has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant in the tank corps, according to word received here which is quite an honor considering that the lad is but 18 years of age. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Morgan, former Xenian. He figured as an athlete at Columbia City High School, starting at basketball and on the cinder track, where he lowered the state record in the mile run at Fort Wayne. He enlisted in the artillery but was later transferred.

GEORGE HOREN IS PUT IN CLASS B.

Mrs. Anna Horen, of this city, has received word from her son, George Horen, who was sent to Syracuse, N. Y., with limited service men from Spencer, Indiana, where he was formerly storekeeper for the Pennsylvania railroad.

The strict examination given the men there, caused a reclassification in four different classes, according to Mr. Horen. Class A men are those who are physically fit and should never have been put into limited service. They are sent to the regular training camps for general service at once. Class B men are those who are subjected to limited service but can be used for service either here or abroad. It is in this class that Mr. Horen was placed and he is hoping to get sent to France. Class C men are those who are fit for limited service only in this country while Class D, are physically unfit and are returned to their homes.

Notice to Druggists Price Advance

For over a year now we have succeeded in maintaining our old prices, principally by virtue of a big increase in sales, which reduced our overhead cost.

For our fiscal year ending July 1, 1918, our sales amounted to over a million dollars—an increase of 50 per cent over the preceding year.

We had hoped to bridge the war period without a change in prices on

DOMESTIC SCIENCE CONTEST AT FAIR IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY

More than a score of Montgomery county young women had been entered in the domestic science contest at the Montgomery County Fair, in competition for the two free trips to Columbus, during the Farmers' Week, in January, 1919, when the entries were closed last Saturday evening.

The trip is offered by the Montgomery County Agricultural Improvement association to the young women scoring the highest number of points in the contest.

This is in addition to the regular prizes of $10, $8, $6, $4, and $2, offered by the Fair Board and payable in Thrift Stamps.

Monday, August 26, is the final day for entries in the second annual dog show. Much interest is being manifested in this competition in which more than 200 dogs of all classes and breeds were entered last year.

Entries in the special farm display class, which also closed last Saturday, are taxing the resources of the committee in charge, to provide space for them in the agricultural hall. The fact that the war has been an extra incentive to spur farmers to the greatest possible productive effort during the present season, is expected to bring forth some of the best products of the soil ever seen at the Montgomery County Fair.

The Ohio War Board

Says
today

Ohio boys, invalided home from the battle front, will need the best of care and attention that they may be nursed back to health and reconstructed physically.

Casualty lists to July 1 show 86 Ohio boys seriously wounded in battle. This does not include many who have shed their blood in recent heavy fighting on the Western Front.

It is to meet the problem of taking care of these boys that the Government has called upon the young women of this country to prepare themselves for the nursing profession.

Twenty-five thousand young women between the ages of 19 and 35 are wanted to register in the U. S. Student Nurse Reserve, and to hold themselves in readiness to train for service as nurses.

Ohio must enroll 2230 of this number. The Woman's Committee, Ohio Branch, Council of National Defense, in the various counties will act as enrolling agents.

Doctor Prescribes Vinol

For Schoolboy To Create Strength After Sickness.

Vineland, N. J.—"I am a schoolboy, 17 years of age, and typhoid fever left me weak and debilitated, so I had to stay out of school three months—my doctor prescribed Vinol. It has built up my strength and now I am feeling fine."—S. E. Bunce.

The reason Vinol was so successful in this boy's case, is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run-down system, make rich, red blood and create strength. 20 YEARS AGO

Mr. John O'Dea and family went to Dayton this morning and will spend the day visiting the Soldiers' Home.

Mr. Riley Kyle, who is now located in Springfield, where he is engaged in the manufacture of embalming fluid, is meeting his friends in this city.

Mr. Forest Sutton and Mr. Robert Williamson returned on Saturday from a week's vacation, spent in taking the Sabina fair and in fishing at the reservoir.

The Osborn Local is making an appeal for that place for the new court house, on the grounds that it has the best streets of any town in the county, a waterworks and electric light plant, better railroad facilities than any other town in the county and an electric line will soon be built connecting Dayton, Springfield and Urbana.

The barn of Harry Kline, near Osborn, was burned Monday, 525 bushels of wheat, 500 bushels of corn and 70 tons of timothy hay being destroyed.

Attorney Chas. H. Kyle, acting for City Solicitor R. L. Gowdy, who is ill, went to Cincinnati Saturday and succeeded in getting the electric light contract signed the cost to the city to be $400.

LITTLE CHILD IS CALLED BY DEATH

Little Elsie Mildred Denney, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Denney of two miles northeast of Fairfield on the Springfield pike, died Tuesday night. Death was due to heart trouble from which the little one had been ill for eleven days.

The little girl was born near Alpha, December 22, 1915 and was thus two years and eight months of age at the time of death. Besides the parents she is survived by two brothers and two sisters. The funeral services will be held at the residence Friday morning at ten o'clock and burial will be made at Cedarville.

Bennett's Premonition.

There's no end of merry anecdotes of the whimsicalities of the late James Gordon Bennett, editor of the New York Herald. Once he directed that a reporter be sent every night to a menagerie, with instructions to watch the man who put his head between the lion's jaws until the lion bit it off. The reporter covered his assignment without having anything to report. Finally he took a night off. That night the lion took a bite.—Boston Globe.

FIENDS WHO BOMB HOSPITALS.

"Man's inhumanity to man makes countless millions mourn." And yet in all civilized countries, for the last half century, there has always been a remarkable condition beyond which common consent said: "this is sacred ground, there can be no intrusion here."

Even though "war is hell," the hospital, where the wounded were being treated, has always been looked upon as such a pitiable situation that he who would assault it has been regarded as a brute beyond the pale of respect from any decent person alive.

And yet we have come to the time and have found the people, or rather have found the brutes, who make a business of attacking hospitals.

A dispatch from France this week tells us that the Germans three times in the last 48 hours showed utter disregard for the Red Cross flag. On two consecutive nights, they bombed one of our field hospitals standing alone in a big field and plainly marked with a big red cross.

A chaplain told how, while he was administering the last rites to our dying near a field dressing station, a German observation plane swooped very low over the building, which is a farmhouse standing far from any woods or village where troops might possibly be quartered and which has a huge red cross in cloth tacked across its roof.

The German machine arose apparently signally the enemy's artillery, and three minutes later a dozen shells descended upon the building. One struck squarely in the dressing station, killing all three doctors and four men whom they were attending. Ten others, waiting in line also were killed. The chaplain who told of the attack was blown across the road.

"Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." Surely if these German fiends, who bomb hospitals, if they get their just deserts in the future world, should there find a place ten times hotter than that reserved for the ordinary sinner.

THE ETIQUETTE OF SURRENDER.

The Germans are said to be very much annoyed by the fighting methods of the American troops. They complain that we do not fight according to rule, and worse still, do not surrender according to rule.

It is the German custom, whenever a small band is cut off from the main body and surrounded by the enemy, to surrender without more ado, just as "men" on a checkerboard are given up when they are cornered. Individual Germans yell "Kamerad," as a matter of course. They even go around looking for somebody to surrender to.

The Americans stubbornly refuse to follow this rule. A company, platoon or squad or any fortuitous aggregation of soldiers separated from their comrades, go right on fighting. When completely surrounded, they proceed to fight their way out. Little groups carry on guerilla warfare as long as they are able to pull a trigger or push a bayonet. If they lose their guns, they try to capture others from the enemy and generally succeed. Individuals go on fighting alone, in utter disregard of death. They will not hold up their hands.

Even when forcibly disarmed and hauled away as prisoners, the Americans refuse to stay captured. They seize the first opportunity to knock their guards down, take their guns away from them and fight their way back to their own lines. They sometimes get hold of machine guns, and turn the tables on the Huns in a surprising fashion.

It must be extremely irritating. Americans are such barbarians! If they had a little more German kultur in their systems, they'd know how to surrender.

ANOTHER INCH.

Every little while an attempt is made by some member of Congress from the South to put the veterans of the Confederacy on an equality with the soldiers of the Grand Army. Now a Democrat from Tennessee has come forward with a bill to grant the franking privileges to state officers who are charged with the administration of the State Confederate pension laws. The soldiers of the north are glad enough to forget the rancors of the 60's and to receive back as brothers the men who fought against them at that time. They do not take kindly, however, to seeing the Federal Government being gradually burdened with the care of the very men who tried to wreck it. Bills of various kinds looking to that end have been introduced, such as erecting monuments to Southern officers at public expense and granting Federal pensions to Confederate veterans, and now the franking privilege is suggested as a means of getting into the public treasury.

CHALMERS MURPHY GETS COMMISSION

Chalmers W. Murphy, manager of the Greene County Lumber Company, who was qualified for limited service after being reclassified as a newly married man, has secured a commission as First Lieutenant in the construction division of the army, and has been ordered to hold himself in readiness to be called to Washington at any time. He will motor through to Washington when called and will be accompanied by his wife.

With his knowledge of the lumber industry, Mr. Murphy will be a valuable man in the army service in the construction division. It has not been announced who will succeed him as head of the local lumber concern.

RAMS U-BOAT AND LETS HUNS DROWN

Washington, Aug. 21.—The Navy Department announced today that the Captain of an American steamer had reported that his vessel rammed and probably sunk a submarine about 9:30 p. m., on August 17, near Winter Quarter Shoal, off the Northern Virginia Coast. The captain stated the submarine was struck on her port bow, bringing her alongside.

The submarine crew hailed in strong accents, saying they were friends of his. He kept on his course, he said. The steamer is now in port with a badly damaged bow and a quantity of water in her hold. The captain thinks he sank the sub.

In making the announcement the department did not name the ship. Because of the American skipper's circumstantial report, and the tangible evidence furnished by the damaged bow the story is given credence not accorded most of the accounts of submarine destructions reaching the navy.

"Omnibus Bill." The term "omnibus bill" was applied to a series of measures passed through congress in 1850, largely through the influence of Henry Clay, intended as a sort of compromise on the slavery question. The chief provisions were the admission of California as a free state to the Union, the organization of the territories of Utah and New Mexico, without restrictions on slavery; the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia and a fugitive slave law. Debate in the senate on these propositions lasted about two months, and was participated in by many of the leading men then in congress, as Clay, Webster, Calhoun, Seward, Chase, Douglas and others.

LETTERS FROM OUR SOLDIERS

Letters for this column from Greene county's soldiers are solicited. No matter whether the letter is from a soldier in the training camp or from the battle trenches it is of interest, not only to his close friends but to the general public. Therefore if you receive a letter from a soldier and it contains interesting news pass it along to the newspaper and we will publish it so all his friends may enjoy it. Soldiers are also invited to write directly to the newspaper.

City Auditor Roy C. Haywood has received the following interesting letter from E. Gleeson McCarty, amateur show producer, who is now doing that sort of work with the Sixth Division at Camp Sherman:

"Your nice fat letter came to me just a week ago today and all that I have to say (after telling you that it was most welcome) is that you surely took your time about writing me. I often think of you, however, and had just about made up my mind that you were pro-German and didn't have enough patriotism to write to a poor little Sammie, who made you what you are today, in spite of the bum piece of work I turned out. Take that you villain, now maybe you won't neglect me so shamefully in the future."

"How am I getting along? Well, never in my life have I worked harder than I am working, right now. Not even in the frenzied days of 'Our Native Land' and like productions. You probably know, by this time, what I am doing here as I seem to have several good press agents in Xenia. However, it will be news to you to learn that I expect to go over seas the latter part of this month with the 84th Division. Am waiting now for my appointment to a very good job and am to have charge of all theatricals of the 84th overseas. If I am fortunate enough in landing this I will be attached to Division Headquarters, and if all goes well, I may be wearing leather 'puts' before many moons. However I didn't come to this man's army with a commission in view and if I do not get one, I will be able to survive."

"Have just finished a complete and detailed survey of every outfit in the Division, listing every soldier and non-soldier who is capable of doing stunts of any sort and believe me old boy, it was some job. But we surely have an abundance of talent."

PORT WILLIAM

Mr. and Mrs. William Melvin had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Williamson and daughter, of near Xenia, Misses Hazel and Mary Brown and Mr. James Melvin.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mechlin and daughter, Miss Nancy, and Mrs. Flago of Springfield, spent Sunday with O. W. Linkhart and family.

The number seven and eight Sunday school classes will give an ice cream social Friday evening, the proceeds to go to purchase Thrift Stamps.

WOMAN AMBULANCE DRIVER GIVEN MEDAL

General Plumer rewarding British woman ambulance driver.

General Plumer of the British army is shown in the above picture pinning the military medal on one of the women ambulance drivers of the British forces. She has been cited for bravery during air raids in France. These women constantly risk their lives at the front because of the utter disregard of the Hun for the Red Cross insignia and hospitals.

PROF. C. H. PARRETT ENJOYS LIFE IN UNCLE SAM'S ARMY

Prof. Charles H. Parrett, former instructor in science on the faculty of Xenia high school, enlisted in the service several months ago. He is now situated at Camp Johnston, Jacksonville, Fla. In an entertaining letter to a Xenia friend, thanking for a box of home made goodies, he says:

"When a box comes to the tent, it is not opened until all the boys are present. When one has ten cents, it belongs to all, that is a feature of army life."

I like army life. I am not as heavy by 20 pounds, as I was last winter, but brown as an Indian, and never had better health in my life. The heat here is something fierce. It gets to 127 degrees some days. The sun just burns you up alive."

We had a sand storm yesterday afternoon. It was like one of those you read about in the "desert." You could not see across the company street."

I would appreciate a word from any of the boys or girls. I do not have so much time to write, as I would like. I think I will be transferred to the Barracks; I do not expect to be here very long. I have been classified as an educational instructor in the Q. M. C. The commanding officer asked me if I would like a 7000 mile journey to Russia. Of course you could guess my answer. I take the examination tomorrow. I sure would like to make the trip."

There are a fine bunch of boys here in camp, all I have met are about my age, and sensible. This camp is a training school for overseas duty. I went on "kitchen police" at 3 a. m. until 7. Didn't have anything to do so I thought I had better put up my clothes line."

You may think it awful to wash on Sunday, but that is about all the time I have. You see I am busy from 5:15 a. m. until 6 p. m., through the week, and if you get a few minutes off through the week, you usually want to answer some correspondence. I really wish I was going to be back at Xenia this year. I surely was treated fine by the pupils. I never will have anything but a warm spot in my heart and a remembrance I will never forget."

My tent is pitched on the white sand, no vegetation whatever. The kitchen floor is sand, the dining room a seat in the sand covered by the heavens draped with fleecy clouds. You can get used to it, and enjoy sitting in the sand eating, while the sweat drops off your chin. I must give you the menu for today: Breakfast, fresh eggs, fried spuds, bacon, bananas, Post Toasties, milk, coffee and bread."

Dinner, roast beef, mashed potatoes, sweet corn on cob, peas creamed, bread, ice cream, lemonade."

Supper fried potatoes, with onions, frankfurters, pears, bread, ice cream, coffee."

Mr. Parrett's address is, First Office Regiment, No. 18, Camp Johnston, Fla.

'THE WIFE'
BY JANE PHELPS

GENEROUSLY FOR HER WORK.
CHAPTER XV.

Finally the room was finished. Ruth had been south a month. At first Brian had written cheerfully, almost gaily, about keeping bachelor hall, etc. But the last two or three letters had told of his loneliness, and had wondered when she was coming back.

"You haven't left me for good, have you dear?" he asked, pretending to joke, "because if you have, I shall set the police on you with orders to bring you back. But really, Ruth, I don't believe you have any idea of how lonely I am, or you would pack up and come back by the next train. I can't bear to go home, lately; it grows more and more lonely without you."

"I really must go!" she told her aunt. "It was good in Brian to let me come, and I feel abominably selfish when I think of him there, all alone, while I am having a glorious time here, and being waited on like I used to be. I reckon you all have most spoiled me again."

Her aunt did not urge her to remain. But she figured up what she would have paid a decorator for the work, and insisted that Ruth take a check for the same amount.

"The laborer is worthy of his hire," she quoted.

"But I LOVED to do it!" Ruth returned. "And really would you have paid a really truly professional man all that?" The check was a large one. "Yes, perhaps more."

This second parting was in some respects harder than the first had been. Ruth had so easily slipped back into the old groove; so readily fallen into the old habits of luxury, and had been so loving, as well beloved, that they could not bear to see her go. Mammy Rachel, especially, lamented long and loudly. She had expected to return with Ruth from the moment she knew she was coming South. Her disappointment was very keen, and she took no pains to hide it.

"It sho'ly ain't wicked, she ain't nothin' but a baby, and her all 'lope up N'oth."

Only Mrs. Claybourne said nothing. She fairly ached to keep her niece with her; to feel that once again she belonged to her, and was happy. She noted the softness of her hands, the gleam on her hair, the look of perfect grooming which had always been associated with Ruth, and which had been absent when she came.

"How does she endure it?" she muttered. "She must love him very much."

Ruth did. As she drew near New York, she could scarcely wait to see Brian, to be clasped in his arms. It
